

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Jared Huffman
U.S. House of Representatives
1630 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Huffman:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Tom Wheeler".

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Hank Johnson
U.S. House of Representatives
2240 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Johnson:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Derek Kilmer
U.S. House of Representatives
1429 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Kilmer:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Adam Kinzinger
U.S. House of Representatives
1221 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Kinzinger:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Tom Wheeler".

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Rick Larsen
U.S. House of Representatives
2113 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Larsen:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Barbara Lee
U.S. House of Representatives
2267 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congresswoman Lee:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Jerry McNerney
U.S. House of Representatives
1210 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman McNerney:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

April 11, 2014

The Honorable George Miller
U.S. House of Representatives
2205 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Miller:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Gary Peters
U.S. House of Representatives
1609 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Peters:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Tom Wheeler".

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Chellie Pingree
U.S. House of Representatives
1318 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congresswoman Pingree:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Jared Polis
U.S. House of Representatives
1433 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Polis:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Carol Shea-Porter
U.S. House of Representatives
1530 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congresswoman Shea-Porter:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Tom Wheeler".

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Eric Swalwell
U.S. House of Representatives
501 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Swalwell:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Frederica Wilson
U.S. House of Representatives
208 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congresswoman Wilson:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

April 11, 2014

The Honorable Don Young
U.S. House of Representatives
2314 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Young:

Thank you for your letter regarding modernization of the Commission's rules governing the Schools and Libraries universal service support mechanism – also known as the E-rate program. I particularly appreciate your constructive support for ensuring that the E-rate program is well positioned into the future.

Modernization of the E-rate program is among the most important tasks currently facing the Commission. As you point out in your letter, it is critical to America's future to ensure that our schools and libraries have affordable access to modern high-capacity broadband technologies. I am a strong advocate for and believe in the E-rate program, and the need to modernize its operation to emphasize high-speed broadband. I have attached two recent speeches on the topic.

Commission staff is reviewing the record that has been developed in response to the July 2013 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and meeting with stakeholders to ensure that we have robust input from all interested parties. Just a few weeks ago, the staff released a Public Notice seeking focused comment on a handful of specific issues that have been raised by commenters. And my goal is for the Commission to adopt an Order later this spring that would implement fundamental structural and administrative changes, the results of which would go into effect in 2015. We need to ensure that the E-rate program supports the high-capacity broadband needed to give our students access to twenty-first century educational opportunities, while simultaneously improving the efficiency and administration of the program and establishing explicit program goals and measurements. We will include your letter in the record of the proceeding for Commission consideration as we proceed with reform of this important program.

I appreciate your interest in this matter. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Tom Wheeler

Enclosures